"CareerBuilder.com's employee base is expanding rapidly as we continue a bold campaign to capture more market share," said Matt Ferguson, President and Chief Operating Officer of CareerBuilder.com. "Rosemary is adept in managing the human capital of high-growth technology companies. Her record has shown she can successfully scale up function and culture to support aggressive performance and revenue goals."

Haefner comes to CareerBuilder.com with an extensive background in Human Resources for technology-based businesses. Most recently, Haefner headed up the Midwest Region's Employee Services team for RCN Corporation, a provider of voice, data and cable services with over 3,000 employees. Prior to this, she served as Vice President of Human Resources for Agency.com, a professional interactive services company that grew rapidly to 1,500 employees in 13 offices worldwide after its merger with her previous employer Eagle River Interactive. In addition, Haefner spent several years as a Senior Human Resources Consultant for small to mid-sized companies at McGladrey & Pullen.

Haefner holds a bachelor's in political science from the University of Chicago and is certified by the Society for Human Resource Management as a Professional in Human Resources (PHR). She also holds a certification from Development Dimensions International as a facilitator for management development curriculum.
