

CareerBuilder Employment Screening Named No. 1 Background Screening Provider by HRO Today Magazine

CareerBuilder Employment Screening is the first to receive No. 1 recognition three times

CHICAGO and ATLANTA, Dec. 1, 2017 /PRNewswire/ -- CareerBuilder Employment Screening, formerly Aurico, today announced it earned the first place ranking on HRO Today magazine's 2017 Baker's Dozen list of global background screening firms.

The announcement marks the sixth consecutive year CareerBuilder Employment Screening, the employment screening business of one of the largest human capital solutions providers in the world, has been recognized by the HRO Today survey. This is the third time HRO Today named the company the top overall background screening provider — making it the only company to have achieved this three times.

HRO Today's Baker's Dozen is based on quantitative rankings and feedback from verified customers of participating companies through an online survey on various categories including service breadth, deal sizes and quality.

"We are honored to be recognized as a trusted leader in the industry and for our commitment to the customer and candidate experience," said Ben Goldberg, CEO of CareerBuilder Employment Screening. "We are dedicated to providing the best customer satisfaction, quality and accuracy to reduce friction throughout the hiring processes. Having our customers acknowledge that our employment screening results are leading the industry is a true honor."

CareerBuilder Employment Screening has conducted more than 17 million background checks and has a comprehensive portfolio of screening services that includes criminal checks, verification and credentialing, drug testing and health services and an electronic I-9 and E-Verify program. The company has been a leader in the space for more than 25 years, optimizing efficiency, mitigating risk and driving maximum value for its clients. Since being acquired by CareerBuilder in 2016, the company has continued to expand its footprint in the market while maintaining exceptional service, report quality and screening technology.

The company is NAPBS accredited and ISO 9001:2015 certified. Learn more at screen.careerbuilder.com.
