In 2007, the CareerBuilder Network* attracted an average of more than 21 million unique visitors per month in the U.S., 10 million more than its largest competitor, according to comScore Media Metrix data. Today, the company announced it has further strengthened its traffic lead in the industry and set a new record for the careers traffic category in the U.S. with 25.5 million unique visitors coming to the CareerBuilder Network in the month of January.

Traffic levels continue to climb as CareerBuilder.com expands its distribution network in the U.S. and overseas. To date, CareerBuilder.com powers the career channels for more than 1,600 partners. Including partner Web properties and subsites and the microsites the company owns, CareerBuilder.com's job search engine is present on more than 9,000 Web sites worldwide. Capitalizing on the momentum, the company is making a forceful push into European markets through organic growth, acquisitions and the launch of several more co-branded career channels with MSN in 2008.
